LISTS COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER CHARACTERIZATION OF NEWS AGENCIES

Ti-hua -- In the international news field, the commonly encountered news services are as follows:

- Tass Agency; known as T'a-ssu-she (1) [numbers refer to appended. characters. This is the official USSR news agency; it has offices in the principal cities of all important countries.
- 2. New China Agency; known as Hsin-hua-she (2). This is the official news agency of the Peoples Republic of China. It has offices in Moscow, Prague, and other places.
- Reuters Agency; known as Lu-t'ou-she (3). British, unofficial; mouthpiece of monopolistic capitalists.
- 4. Associated Press; known as Mei-l u-she (4). Privately owned news agency under control of US financiers.
- 5. United Press; known as Ho-chung-she (5). Largest US news agency; owned by the newspaper trust; also the greatest fabricator and disseminator of rumors and unfounded reports.
- 6. International News Service; known as Kuo-chi Hsin-wen-she (6). Agency owned by the Hearst Syndicate of disreputable US yellow journalism.
- 7. French News Agency; known as Fa-hsin-she (7), which is the abbreviation for Fa-kuo Hin-wen-she. This is the official news agency of the French government. It is the successor of the prewar Havas News Agency. Fundamentally, it reflects the reactionary standpoint of the French government.
- 8. Kyodo News Agency; known as Kung-t'ung-she (8), also sometimes as Chingtu-she. In November 1945, it replaced the Domei News Agency, which was suspended. It is the tool of the Japanese ruling class.
